1973 IN REVIEW:

The Agony . . .

. . . The Ecstasy

A year of calamities and catastrophies—and a distinct odor from the tunnel . . . “Did you say that was a SKUNK?” . . . green-eyed, brown-haired Brazilian nut wins the hearts of all she meets . . . Lise Steffen—Our SIS . . . Jayne Kerckmar demonstrates the “Big Bang Theory” . . . She forget that acetone burns! . . . Friday morning bomb scare . . . no bomb, no kids . . . Pen Argyl’s answer to the three day week-end . . . “It’s always fun riding a Yamaha—a—a—a . . . Right Dave?” . . . We’d like to express our sincere appreciation to George Kohan for making this page possible. We’d like to, but in all good conscience . . . We will express our heartfelt gratitude to the following people who gave of their time to finish this book on schedule: David Uhler, Lorraine Shook, Gail Lugg, Lise Steffen, and Jane Godshall. These people were not a part of the regular staff, but were very valuable to the production of the book . . . We would also like to say “Thanks” to our helpful advisors . . . All things considered, 1973 was a BLAST!

Ups and Downs . . .

. . . Ins and Outs

Bits and Pieces

FACULTY AND ADMINISTRATION

FAR LEFT: Mr. Elwood Petchel—Health and Physical Education Teacher—graduate of Wilson Boro High School—BS from Penn State—has taught here 12 years—hobbies include hunting, fishing, and sports. MIDDLE LEFT: Craig Dalley emerging from our trusty Driver Ed Car. Can you believe it hasn't been racked up yet? TOP MIDDLE: "... and when we're finished learning about the human body, we'll all be ready for pre-med, right? No, but you'll be able to stop a nosebleed!" BOTTOM LEFT: Time for all the girl Robin Hoods to knock their arrows and hit the targets, no not the ground! TOP FAR RIGHT: Mrs. Joyce Ronalds—School Nurse—graduate of John Adams High School—BS from Kutztown—Diploma from Wyckoff Heights Hospital—has been here 17 years—hobbies include knitting, sewing and reading. MIDDLE FAR RIGHT: Mr. Robert Gold—Health and Physical Education Teacher—graduate of Pen Argyl High School—BS from Westminster College—has taught here 1 year—hobbies include sports and coaching JV Football. CENTER MIDDLE: Mr. Duane Toth—Health and Driver Education Teacher—graduate of Pen Argyl High School—BS and MA from ESSC—has taught here 7 years—hobbies include hunting, fishing, camping, boating, skiing, and all sports. CENTER FAR RIGHT: Miss Jennifer Schantz—Health and Physical Education Teacher—graduate of Quakertown High School—BS from ESSC—presently studying for Masters in Health Education—has taught here 4 years—hobbies include participating in and watching athletic events, skiing, outdoors, camping and canoeing. BOTTOM RIGHT: Mrs. Vivian Wagner—Health and Physical Education Teacher—BS from ESSC—has taught here 18 years—hobbies include sewing, reading, and sports.

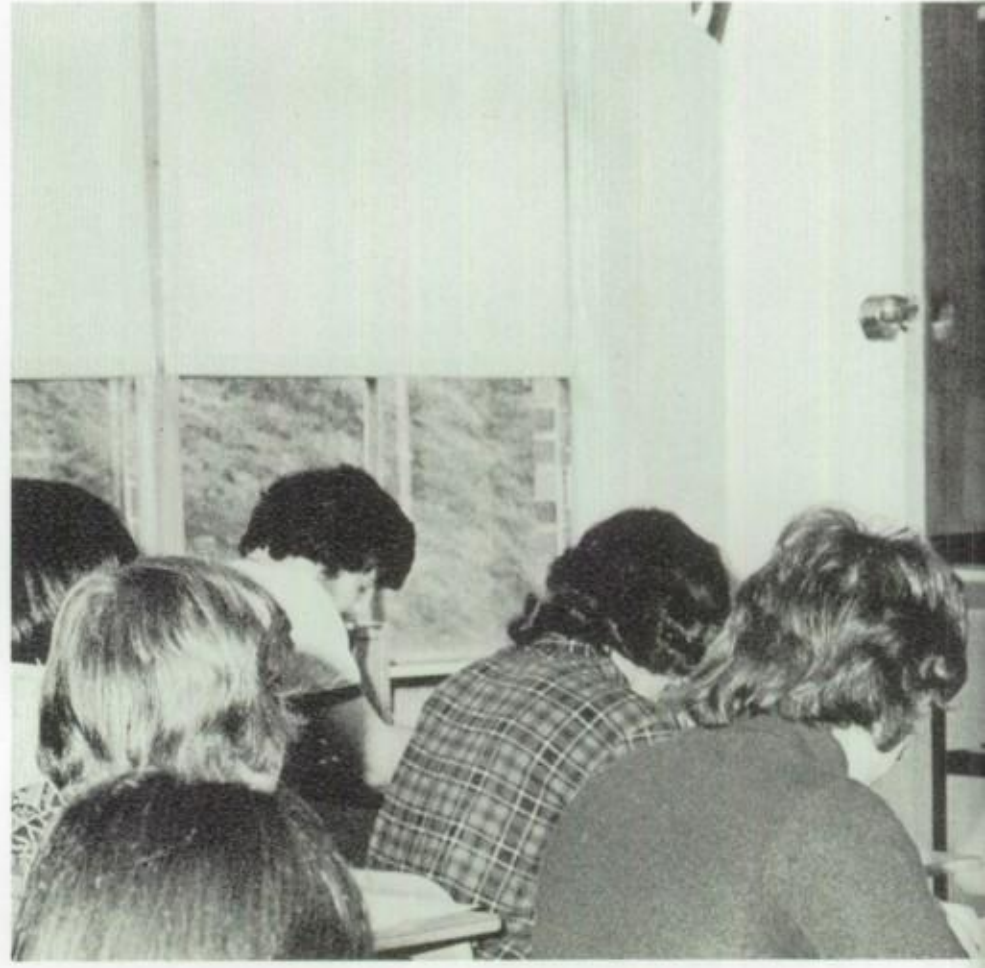

Active Muscles . . .

. . . Healthy Outlook

A combination of book-work and body-work to maintain physically fit, happy, alert students . . . "Glad to meet you Mr. Gold. And this is our outstanding Phys. Ed. department!" . . . Playing "dodge-the-drip" basketball? . . . leaky ceiling in the gym you know! . . . Mrs. Wagner coordinates all department activities . . . Bombardment-UGH!! . . ." Anyone in an inebriated condition will not be permitted to drive the Driver Ed. car!" . . . Dig those groovy paper gowns and slippers for the school physicals . . . "But Mrs. Ronalds, I feel like I'm wearing a potato sack! . . . Proof that there is more to education than sitting in the classroom!"

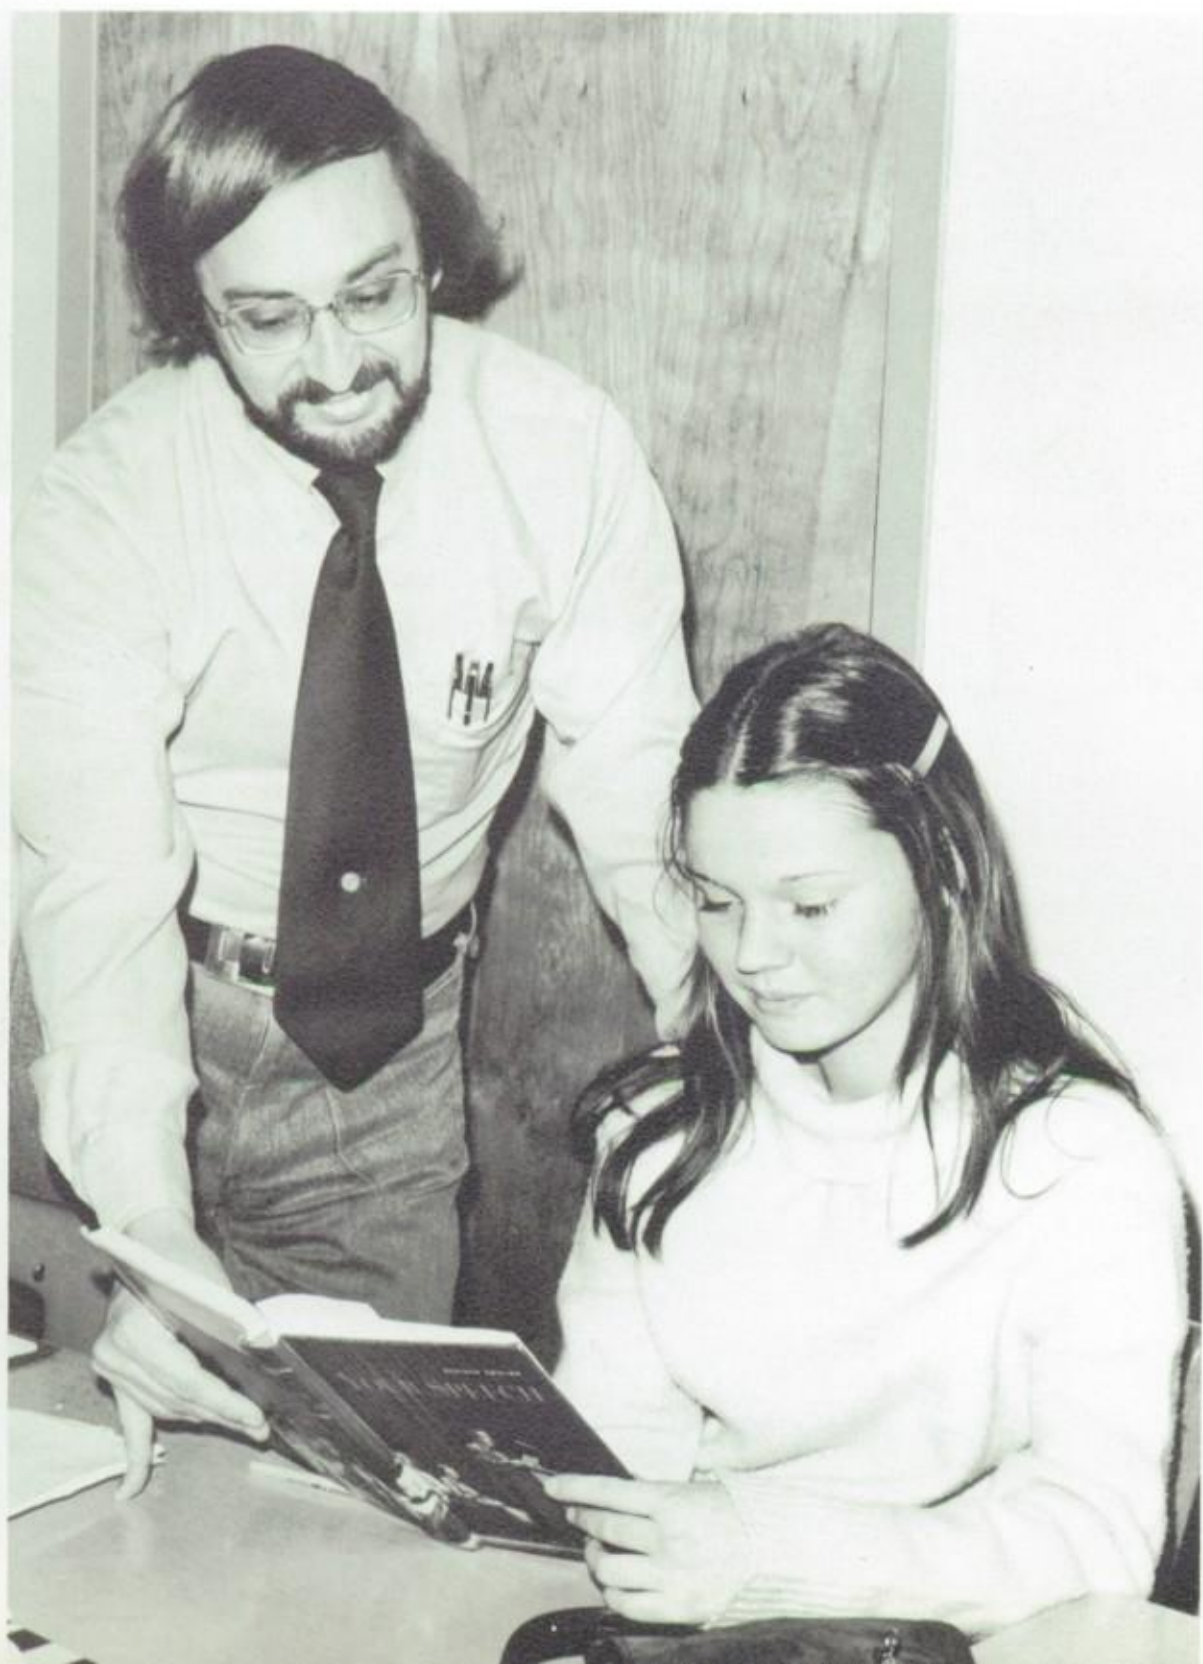

Misplaced Modifier . . .

. . . Prattling Polonius

Developing linguistic skills and an appreciation of literature . . . "Sure would enjoy Shakespeare if I could understand his 'thee's' and 'thou's'" . . . "WHY DOES we have to have a whole half a year of GRAMMER?" . . . Mr. Terry Male organizes the English department . . . "Sure I have the rough draft of my term paper finished, but it's due TOMORROW!" . . . Underline all nouns once and all verbs twice . . . "No term paper, no walk down the cinder track!" . . . ANTIDISESTABLISHMENTARIANISM for a vocabulary word? . . . "To Kill a Mockingbird", anyone? . . . "But how does the movie end?" . . . a trip to Philadelphia to see "Summer and Smoke" . . . Worlds revealed to the mind which could not be explored by the flesh.

Mathematical Expressions . . .

. . . Practical Applications

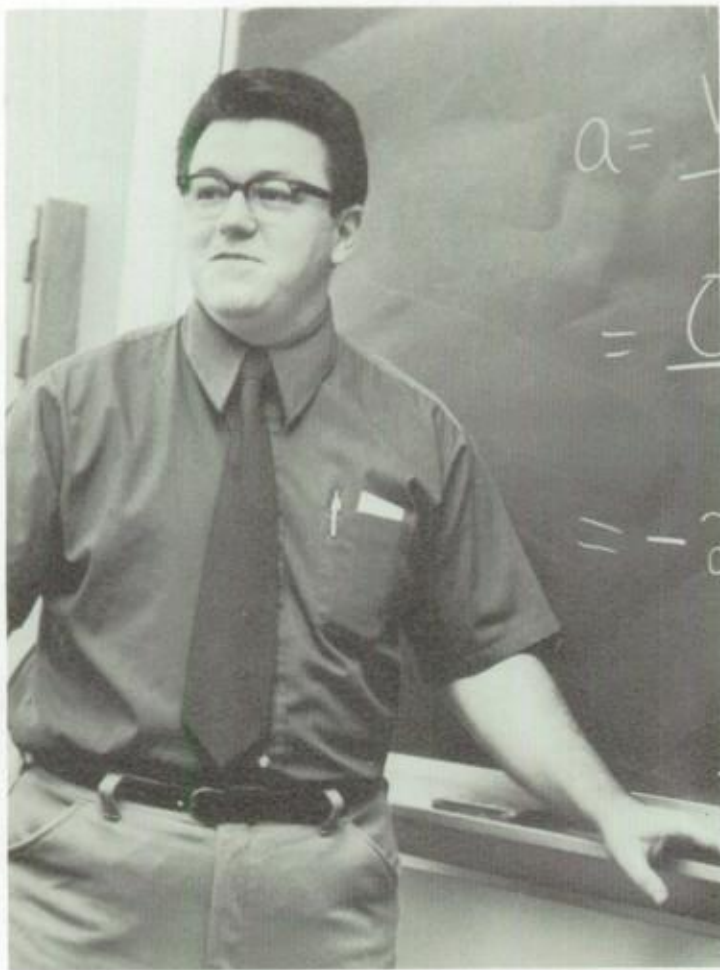

Constantly improving abilities as difficulty progresses . . .
Plain Geometry—who says it's plain?! . . . "What in the world is I.P.I?—Only those of the 'open concept' know for sure!" . . .
Math Workshop . . . "What would we EVER DO without Miss Anderson, as the department head?" . . . "Honors
Math—If I take it will I be in Honor Society?" . . . "Did you know that Mr. Noyes has a kitty cat in his right hand drawer?"
. . . Who ever decided what "n" meant in the first place? . . .
a new "language" in signs and numbers!

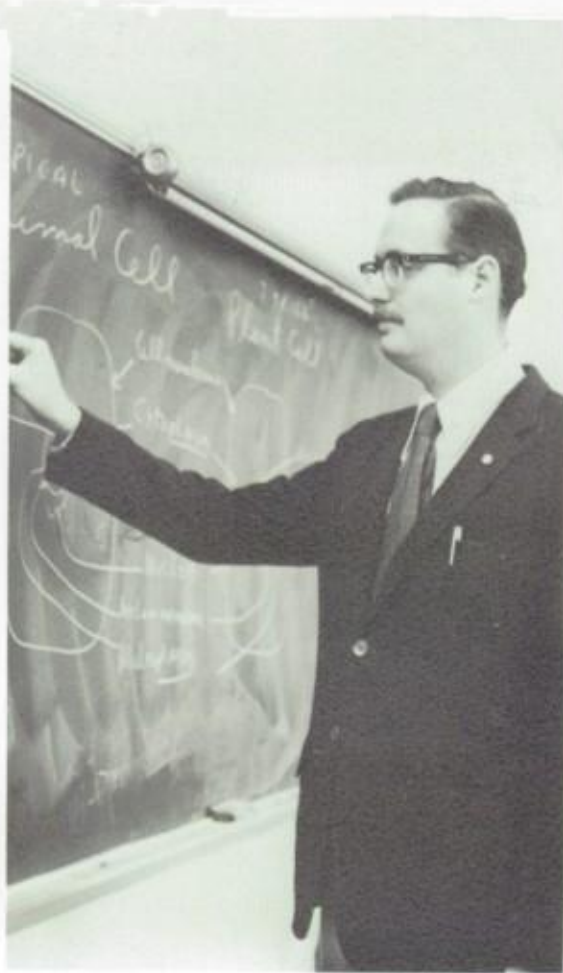

TOP LEFT: Miss Agnes Anderson—Algebra, Analytic Geometry and Calculus, Honors Math—graduate of Duryea High School—BS from West Chester and MA from Ohio State—has taught here 9 years—hobbies include knitting, sewing, reading, and travel. MIDDLE FAR LEFT: Mrs. Janice Kashimba—Math—graduate of West Hazelton High School—BA from Penn State—has taught here 1 year—hobbies include swimming, archery, fencing and tennis. MIDDLE MIDDLE LEFT: Mr. Richard Bowman—Math, Geometry—graduate of Parkland High School—BS from East Stroudsburg—has taught here 6 years—hobby is sports. MIDDLE RIGHT LEFT: Mr. Bruce Noyes—Trigonometry, Algebra, and Math—graduate of East Stroudsburg High School—BS from ESSC—presently studying for Masters—has taught here 9 years—hobby is golf. BOTTOM FAR LEFT: Mr. Eugene Smigel—Math—graduate of Suquehana Consolidated High School—BS from ESSC—has taught here 6 years—hobbies include golf, auto mechanics, fishing, hunting, football, baseball and basketball. BOTTOM MIDDLE: Students enjoy Math classes—well sometimes, anyway. TOP RIGHT: Lynn Schmauder and Dave Lemley appear to know the answer to one of those geometry problems. How about it Dave and Lynn? BOTTOM MIDDLE RIGHT: Mrs. Marjorie Williams—Algebra I—graduate of Pen Argyl High School—BS from Penn State—has taught here 18 years—hobbies include reading, sewing, knitting and gardening. BOTTOM RIGHT: Mrs. June Jones—Math—graduate of Bangor High School—BS from ESSC—has taught here 9 years—hobbies include reading, sewing and crafts.

UPPER LEFT: Mr. Patrick Corey—Physics, Science—graduate of Scranton Central H.S.—BS from ESSC—presently studying for MS in Physical Science—has taught here 5 years—hobby is photography. FAR UPPER LEFT: Thelma Abbot, Connie Bickford, and Sara Harris admire Brian Pfeiffer during one of their many Physics Labs. LOWER LEFT: Mr. McKay is showing—Laurie Harris, Theresa Totani and Fred Koch the procedure for writing their lab report. UPPER RIGHT: Mr. John J. McKay—Biology—graduate of Grover Cleveland H.S.—BS and MS from ESSC—has taught here 6 years—hobbies include Photography, carpentry, and hunting. FAR UPPER RIGHT: Mr. Walter Emery—Life Science, 7th grade Math—Graduate of Bangor—AB and MS from Lafayette and University of Pennsylvania—has taught here 4 years hobbies include stamp and coin collecting, Local History, and Music. MIDDLE LEFT: Mr. Robert Wenger—Physical Science—graduate of Northern H.S.—BS from ESSC—presently studying for Masters—has taught here 5 years—hobby is Photography. MIDDLE: Mr. Charles Kopcho—Life Science, 10th grade General Biology—graduate of Coughlin H.S.—BS from Bloomsburg State College—has taught here 2 years—hobbies include Photography, auto mechanics, and camping. MIDDLE RIGHT: Mr. Thomas Knorr—Earth and Space Science—graduate of Bloomsburg H.S.—BS from Bloomsburg State College—presently studying for Masters—has taught here 6 years—hobby is racing. LOWER RIGHT: Mr. Harry Bray—Chemistry—graduate of Bangor—BS from Penn State—has taught here 15 years—hobbies include all sports, photography and travel.

Applied Laws . . .

. . . Interesting Discoveries

Labs . . . dissections . . . rock collections . . . experiments . . . these are all a part of the different subjects in the Science Department . . . "Mr. Bray, if we catch YOU chewing gum does that mean YOU lose a point, too?" . . . Would you like to have the pleasure of visiting a sewage plant? . . . Then take up advanced Biology with Mr. McKay . . . Killing insects? I thought this was Basic "LIFE" Science?!? . . . Mr. Corey, since when do CARS have anything to do with SCIENCE??? . . . Who's appearing at Mr. Knorr's annual "Rock Festival?, Parts I and II?" . . . courses with many new interests and discoveries for the curious student.

Beneficial Experience . . .

. . . Productive Results

The coordination of study and practice provide the elements for unique experiences—Young men in Home Economics? Would you believe girls in Industrial Arts? . . . "What would we ever do without our overhead projectors!" . . . An aroma of freshly baked food from the Foods Laboratory . . . The only place where you can eat the results of your work! . . . "I've heard of slanted writing but not slanted furniture!" . . . Mr. Schoonover represents a great department as departmental head . . . Today's students mastering skills to prepare for future homes.

TOP LEFT: Mr. Stephen Schoonover—Industrial Arts, Mechanical Drawing—graduate of East 'Burg—BS from Penn State—presently studying for Masters—has taught here 5 years—hobby is gardening. TOP MIDDLE: "Now where was that hole anyway. I'm sure I drilled one in there!" MIDDLE FAR LEFT: Mr. Charles Snyder—Media Specialist—graduate of Oil City High School—BS and MS from Clarion—has taught here 1 year—hobbies include fishing, camping and photography. MIDDLE LEFT: Mr. Stephen Williams—Industrial Arts, Mechanical Drawing—graduate of PAHS—BS from Millersville—presently studying for certification—has taught here 5 years—hobbies include auto racing and sports. MIDDLE RIGHT: Miss Gloria Keiper Home Economics—graduate of Pocono Mt.—BS from Mansfield—has taught here 5 years—hobbies are sewing, knitting and sports. MIDDLE FAR RIGHT: Mrs. Grace Samson—Home Living—graduate of Wilson High—BS from Drexel University—has taught here 26 years.

Traditional Outlook . . .

. . . Broad Horizons

A stimulating combination of music and art provides the student with a worthwhile background in culture . . . "Of course, our department is the fine arts. We're as healthy as anyone else!" . . . The annual art exhibit allows the students to display their talent . . . Hey whatever happened to your you-know-what picture in the display case?" . . . "Mr. Deisher, why is that tic-tac-toe board next to my note in this song?" . . . Mr. Cassady leads a fine department . . . I'd really appreciate the fine arts if I could understand them!" . . . Today Pen Argyl, tomorrow Cornagie Hall!

TO LEFT: Mr. Thoburn Cassady—Music and Chorus—graduate of Petersburg High School, West Virginia—BS and Masters from West Virginia University—has taught here 9 years—hobbies include gardening, reading, and traveling. MIDDLE LEFT: Mr. Rodney Walker—Art—graduate of East 'Burg—BA from Asbury College, Kentucky presently studying for MA—has taught here 1 year—hobbies include camping and archery. MIDDLE RIGHT: Lori Sweet is accompanying for the chorus during one of many practices. BOTTOM LEFT: Jo Miller and Heather Hughes are admiring some fine work that the art students have produced. UPPER BOTTOM RIGHT: Mr. Milton Faust—Art—graduate of Easton—BS from Kutztown—presently studying for Masters—has taught here 4 years—hobbies include sailing, snowmobiling, woodworking, ceramics, jewelry, hunting and fishing. LOWER BOTTOM RIGHT: Mr. Scott Deischer—Music and Band—graduate of Emmaus—BS from Mansfield State—has taught here 2 years.

Interesting Countries . . .

. . . New Languages

Broadening our scope and awareness of different languages . . . duties and responsibilities for Mrs. Ihrie and Mrs. Bowman as co-heads of the foreign language department . . . Spanish, French, or German . . . From dialogues and vocabulary to stories and plays . . . rewards of knowing a foreign language.

UPPER LEFT: Mrs. Nancy Bowman—German, French—graduate of Parkland—BA from Albright—has taught here 5 years—hobbies are reading and travel. . . . Tragic Finale

A fantastic start changes all too soon . . . 0:14 seconds remain, and the call goes down for the "Minute-Men" . . . "What's green and white, disliked by many, and occasionally profane? ANSWER: GEORGE KOHAN" . . . Knight Cagers streak to a torrid 7-1 record . . . then . . . slip by the Blue Eagle 33-32 before 3,000 screaming spectators in Nazareth Memorial Gym . . . after that . . . well . . . it was all downhill . . . Knight Cagers finish season with a streak of a different nature . . . "What IS the problem here?" . . . "No warm-up pants; that's the problem!" . . . Mr. Folk's boys still show a 900% improvement over last year's team . . . Only one thing remains to be said: What the heck is a "Mad Stork"??

Persistent Discipline . . .

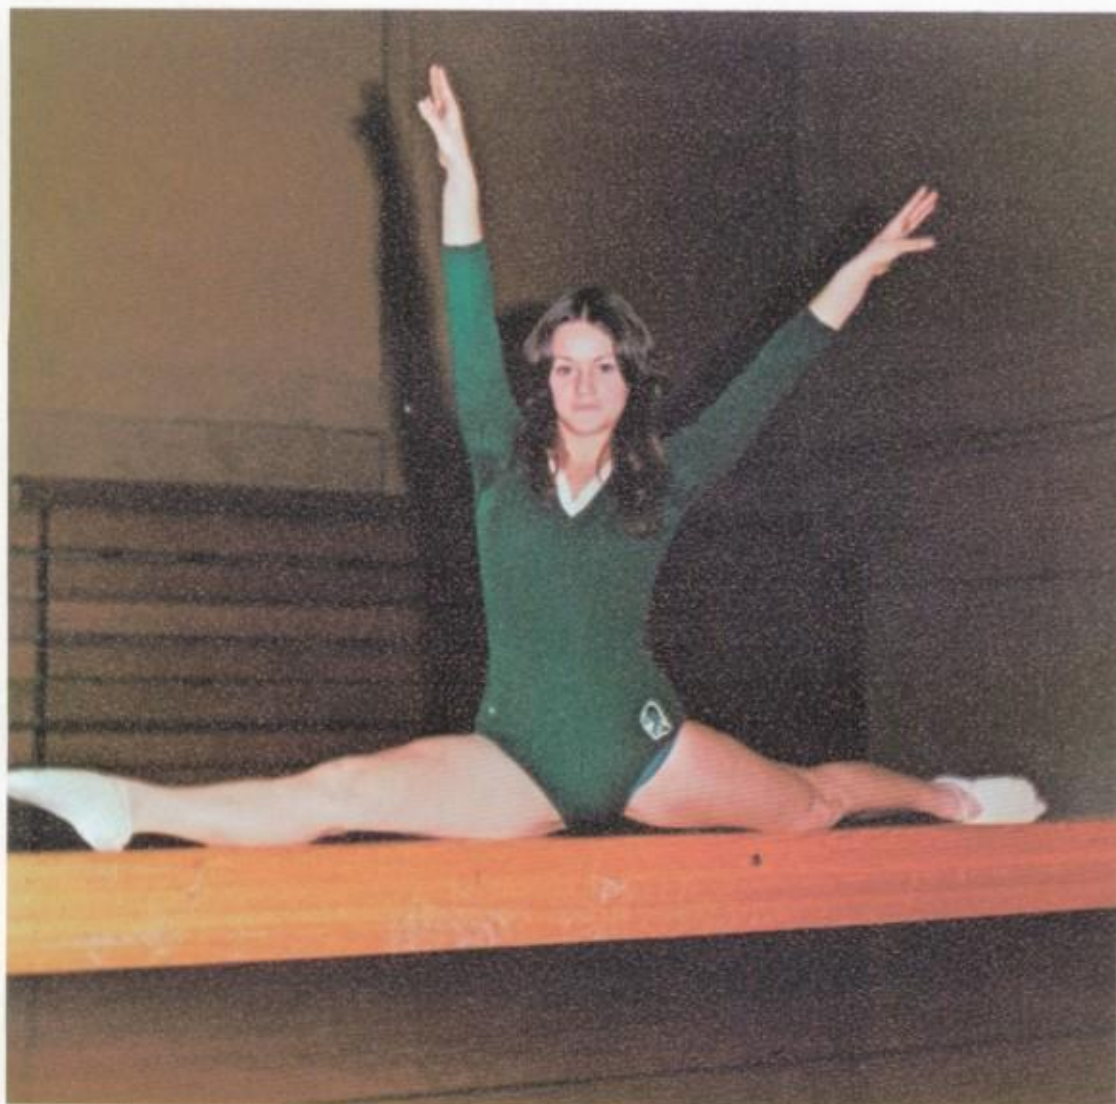

. . . Aesthetic Interpretation

In November, much needed "reconditioning" exercises . . .
 "In this corner, leaping; come on, girls, only one minute left
 . . . "Mr. Toth, when are we getting our new warm-ups?" . . .
 every girl's sport needs a "girl" coach Mrs. Hohenstein? . . .
 "Where's Melanie?—Oh, that's right, it's Thursday afternoon!"
 . . . "What can a "one-armed" gymnast do? ask Linda, the expert" . . . "Girls, today you're getting your warm-ups . . .
 You can use them next year" . . . Celia and Paula go to Districts at Hempfield High as second and third all-around . .
